

SEC Municipal Advisor Rule - Evidence of Independent Registered Municipal Advisor Exemption

By publicly posting the following written disclosure, the Columbus Regional Airport Authority (CRAA) intends that market participants receive and use it for purposes of the independent registered municipal advisor exemption to Rule 15B of the Securities and Exchange Commission regarding the Registration of Municipal Advisors (SEC Municipal Advisors Rule.)

January 5, 2024

To Whom it May Concern:

CRAA has retained an independent registered municipal advisor. CRAA is represented by and will rely on its municipal advisor, PFM Financial Advisors LLC., to provide advice relating to proposals from market participants concerning the issuance of all municipal securities and municipal financial products (including investment of bond proceeds and escrow investments). The personnel of our municipal advisor who will advise CRAA on such matters have represented to CRAA that they have not been associated with a broker dealer firm within the two years prior to the date of this certificate. This certificate may be relied upon for so long as it remains posted on the CRAA website.

Proposals and other information may be addressed to CRAA's Chief Financial Officer, Fabio Spino, 4600 International Gateway, Columbus, OH 43219, fabiospino@columbusairports.com. Any written proposal should also be forwarded to the primary contact at CRAA's municipal advisor, Bill Case, Public Financial Management Advisors LLC, 200 South Orange Ave., Suite 760, Orlando, FL 32801, casew@pfm.com.

CRAA makes no representation as to whether a market participant is in compliance with the SEC Municipal Advisor Rule by receipt of this certificate.

Questions or requests for additional information regarding CRAA 's relationship with its municipal advisor should be addressed to its Chief Financial Officer.

Sincerely,
